Chimay: is one of only 6 beers that are allowed to use the name 'Trappist'. Just 6 beers are brewed within the walls of the Trappist abbeys, under the supervision of the monks.

Chimay Bleu: this beer whose fragrance of fresh yeast with a light, flowery rosy touch is especially pleasant. Its flavor, noticed when tasting it, only accentuates the pleasant sensations perceived in the aromas, while revealing a light but pleasant touch of roasted malt.

Chimay Rouge: topped with a creamy head, it gives off a light fruity apricot aroma produced by the fermentation. The taste perceived in the mouth is a balance confirming the fruity nuances noticed in the fragrance. Its taste, which imparts a silky sensation to the tongue, is made refreshing by a light touch of bitterness.

Ten Penny: a light Scottish style ale, brewed with a secret recipe developed by Brewmaster Ray Ballard. The finest fresh barley malts have been combined with a hint of hops from the Pacific Northwest to produce a unique and universally drinkable ale.

Framboise Lambic: made from local barley, unmalted wheat, and wild yeast. After spontaneous fermentation raspberries are added, creating a secondary fermentation and yielding a beer of exceptional flavor and complexity

Kriek Boon: Traditional Belgian Lambic Ale fermented with real cherries and aged for 2 years in oak vats. Brewed and bottled by the Boon Brewery in Lembeek, Belgium, the village that gave Lambic its name.
